

Amaranth Lodge Observes Courtesy Night 259th Place

Officers and member of Loma Court, Order of Amaranth, assembled, Thursday evening, Nov. 8, in Torrance Masonic Temple, for the annual members "Courtesy Night."

Following established custom Honored Lady Audrey Bacon, Associate Matron and Sir Knight Fred Bacon, Associate Patron, presided during opening of the Court, under "good of the order" and closing, with the several stations occupied by members of the court on invitation.

Preceding the formal opening, special escort was given the Royal Matron, Honored

Lady Gladys Mothersell and Royal Patron, Sir Knight Clyde Satterfield by the Courtesy Royal Matron, who on behalf of the Courtesy officers expressed appreciation and thanked the Royal Matron and Royal Patron for their permission, which made the evening's event possible.

Escorted and presented from the Throne, in ritualistic order, were two members of the Grand family, Honored Lady Pearl Mahaffie, assistant grand lecturer and Honored Lady Estella Desjardins, grand representative to the state of Oklahoma; five past royal matrons and five royal patrons.

During the business session with Royal Matron Gladys Mothersell presiding, discussion regarding future events was held with the Royal Matron announcing the Amaranth breakfast, which is to be held Sunday, Nov. 18, in the Masonic Temple, from 7 a.m. 'til 1 p.m. Preparation and serving will be under the direction of Honored Lady Mattie Meyer, past royal matron and Sir Knight Eugene Meyer, past royal patron and a committee of honored ladies and sir knights. The Royal Matron urged all present to attend and

"A Mutual Investment." A panel discussion, "Your Child's Report Card," will be given by Mrs. Caroline Blake, sixth grade teacher; John Caukins, fifth grade teacher, and Mrs. Evelyn Brown, first grade teacher. After the panel a question and answer period will be held.

"Bless This House" and "Prayer of Thanksgiving" will be rendered by the Mothersingers' group. The kindergarten classes will present a classroom participation project.

Refreshments will be served by the morning and afternoon kindergarten room mothers. Child care will be provided in Room 23.

Newton PTA will meet tonight, Nov. 15, at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance Unified School District, will be guest speaker and will be available for a question and answer discussion. Mrs. Otto Willett will speak on "What Is TECA?"

A report on the highly successful Halloween carnival and ham dinner will be given by Mrs. Jack Holmes, ways and means chairman.

Refreshments for the social hour following the meeting will be served by the first grade mothers.
